

DAVID AARON

Polychrome Relief Fragment

Egypt

Old Kingdom 2686 - 2181 B.C.

Limestone

H: 33 x W: 28 cm

Carved in shallow relief with two male figures walking to the left, their skin tinted brick red, wearing close-fitting caps, they wear white kilts with trapezoidal overfold in front, knotted at the waist, each carries a papyrus roll, the figures probably represent quite high-ranking officials

Exhibitions

Séminaire de Valleyfield, Québec, 1953.

Diniacopoulos Collection Exhibition, Ecole Gered-Filion, 1965 (accompanied by photograph of the exhibition which shows the relief on display).

Literature:

Antiquities, Sotheby's, New York, June 5 1999, Lot 24.

Antiquities, Bonhams, London, 14 May 2003, Lot 14.

Life and Death in Ancient Egypt: The Diniacopoulos Collection, 2011, p54-55.